cense Fees

A special meeting on the Scarsdale well proposition was held by the Arlington Heights Village board last Monday night, March 23. In accordance with request of the board, Mr. A. W. McLean, vice president of the Layne North Central company was present and explained how utterly impossible it was for the Scarsdale well to produce 150 gal. P. M.; that his company had exhausted all efforts and means at its disposal in the hope of increasing the gallonage capacity to the figure contracted, namely, 150 gal. P. M., but without avail. On direct question Mr. McLean being asked as to whether there was a possibility of this well at some time delivering 150 gal. P. M., he stated that he was quite positive that it would not, on account of the ground formation; in fact that everything had been done to try and increase the supply, but it was simply impossible. Upon being further asked as to whether the fact that the big sewer constructed was the cause of the well failing to deliver 150 gal. P. M., Mr. McLean replied that even if the sewer had not been built the Scarsdale well simply would not deliver 150 gal. P. M.

President Mors then called attention to the original and supplementary contracts entered into with his company, the former stipulating 300 gal. P. M. and the latter 150 gal. P. M. and stated that under their terms the village was relieved of any expense in connection with the Scarsdale well and was entitled to a refund of all monies paid, the well at present only delivering from 60 to 80 gal. P. M. Mr. McLean took no exception to this statement and stated that such was the case.

It was then pointed out to Mr. McLean by the board that even the 60 gallonage capacity per minute, which is far below what was contracted for, was greatly needed and he was asked to submit a proposal indicating the cost to the village for the acceptance of the Scarsdale well with a substitution of another pump which will be more economical when operating under existing conditions than the one at present installed, which was designed for a well delivering 150 gal. P. M. or more; in submitting this proposal, Mr. McLean also to submit cost of constructing two or three additional Layne gravel well wells.

Can Turn Off Useless Lights
Trustee Goedke reported that 41 lights in Stonegate can be turned off, and 51 in Scarsdale. Mr. Goedke is to get in touch with the Public Service company to ascertain the definite amount of savings which may be made by cutting off these unnecessary lights. A question of a higher rate for less lights was raised.

Go After License Fees
On motion, April 15, is to be the time set for collection of 1930 business licenses; which if not paid, legal proceedings are to be taken.

Mr. Victor Jaster on South Vail requested the board to remove a hydrant from his driveway. On motion, it is to be removed by the street department.

Delinquent Water Accounts
Final notice on water bills were reported mailed; five or six had paid; water for delinquents is to be shut off in a few days.

Gardeners' Co-op. Goes Over Big

The new Gardeners' Supply, Inc., set up in Arlington Heights by the Cook County Farm Bureau about Jan. 1, is having an extraordinary success and exceeding all predictions, according to Mr. O. G. Barrett, farm advisor.

Their business up to Saturday was half what they figured it would be necessary to do for the whole year in order to pay out; so that now they expect to go two or three times over the figured first year's business.

Seventy-five per cent of business has been cash, not 90 per cent credit, as was predicted; and the selling costs have been much under the estimate. A branch in the south end of the county is already planned for next year; when another great increase in business is looked for. The preferred stock has been very easy to sell, Mr. Barrett states. Farm Bureau officials are elated.

This is considered extraordinary in view of the difficult conditions in business generally. The enterprise is cooperative, each Farm Bureau member of which there are some 800, is a shareholder. Profits go back to the owner-patrons.

Mr. John Zikmund, gardening expert, is manager. He was formerly with the Des Plaines Experiment station; and is considerably of an authority on vegetable culture, insects and disease control.

Miss Clara Mode, graduate of Arlington Heights High school last year, has accepted a position in the Farm Bureau office, as assistant secretary.

FOUR KILLED WHEN TRAIN HITS AUTO

Mother Only One Left of Des Plaines Family

John Klinker, 50, night engineer for the Premier rose gardens south of Des Plaines, and his three children were killed about 7:20 a. m. Wednesday morning, when their Ford car was struck by the Chicago-bound Soo Line flyer from DuPage, at Mannheim (Lee street) and Touhy roads, Des Plaines. He was driving the children to the Catholic school for a special Lenten service.

The children were Mary, 13; Fern, 10; and Roy, 7. The boy was taken to St. Mary's hospital, Chicago, out passed away two hours after. The bodies of all were taken to Lauterburg & Oelcher's home for funerals in Des Plaines. The funeral will be Saturday, probably at the Catholic church in Des Plaines.

The mother, Natalie Klinker, was at home in a cottage on the greenhouse grounds, and is the only one of the family left. The family were to go this week to their newly purchased farm in Alabama. The father took the children in the car himself, instead of sending them in the regular bus, so that he might personally thank the teachers for their kindness to the children.

One of the proprietors of the greenhouse, Herman Bauske, had come from the south and waited at the crossing for the train to pass; and was therefore close by at the time of the accident.

Des Plaines has signals rather than gates at its crossings; and fatal accidents have been of rather sensational frequency.

They Are Too Big For You
Somewhere in Arlington Heights or Palatine, the editor left a pair of rubbers early this week. As they are of too large a size for the average citizen, he would be pleased to receive a phone message regarding same.—Ed. Note, Now we will see if advertising pays. Asst. Editor.

OPERETTA 'SONIA' IS TONIGHT

Brilliant Annual Event to Bring Out Friends of Youthful Stars

A large audience is expected to witness the presentation of the operetta "Sonia" tonight at the High School auditorium.

Advance sales of tickets have been good, pointing again that the people of Arlington Heights enjoy and support good entertainment.

Indications are that the operetta will be as successful as any in the past. Final rehearsal, a costume affair, was held last night. Parts, both speaking and singing, have all been well mastered. Stage hands, electricians, and other important but unseen helpers are ready to do their share. Tonight will see the realization of all the expectations that have prompted the hard work of many weeks.

The plot of the operetta, outlined in the Herald last week, is highly entertaining. It moves swiftly and it strikes a modern note in the use of present day Russia as a setting. Bolsheviks, ex-noblemen, and college-bred Americans mingle in scenes full of mystery and cleverness.

The dancing is highly entertaining and the singing is more than good. Part of the excellence of the music is due to the cast, but much of it must be attributed to the fact that it is well chosen and suitable to the voices and the situation.

Costumes for the show represent much hard work. They are tastefully chosen and highly suitable. The scenery, too, lends quite a pleasing effect.

The curtain rises at 8:15 p. m.

Methodist Church To Hold Services Thru Passion Week

Passion Week services at the Methodist church in Arlington Heights begin next Sunday, March 29, and will continue every evening except Saturday; the Rev. Samuel Taylor will be in charge of the services. "Facing Calvary" is the subject for the week.

A baptismal service will be a part of the morning service Palm Sunday; and Palm Sunday evening a pageant will be presented: "The Challenge of the Cross."

Easter Sunday will have special music by the choir; and reception of new members. Sunday morning services are at 11 o'clock; evening services at 7:30 o'clock.

Holy Week Services Daily at St. James Catholic Church

Holy Week services at St. James' Catholic church, Arlington Heights, will include a blessing of the palms before the ten o'clock mass; morning services every day at 8 o'clock except Saturday at 7:30 a. m.; daily evening services at 7:45 o'clock; devotionals the last four evenings of the week. On Wednesday evening will be Stations of the Cross; Thursday, Holy Hours; Friday, a sermon by a Jesuit priest; and Saturday Resurrection services.

For Easter, the choir is preparing a new mass, to be sung at 10 o'clock.

The prospective Catholic Boy scouts are studying and practicing together almost every Thursday evening, under the leadership of their future scoutmaster, Mr. Frank Stefanik. They hope soon to attain Tenderfoot rank.

O'Grady Bill Passes Senate; Up to Governor

The O'Grady-McDermott bill to repeal the Illinois prohibition enforcement act, after passing the House 91 to 56, passed the Senate Wednesday night by a vote of 26 to 24. The measure goes to Governor Louis L. Emmerson for approval or veto.

Senator Arthur A. Huebsch of this Seventh Senatorial district is one of 18 from Cook county, who voted for the O'Grady bill; Senator Barbour cast the one dry vote.

Cook Co. Against State
Chicago and Cook county went 18 to 1 for non-enforcement of the Eighteenth amendment; in contrast to the rest of Illinois, that went 23 to 8 against repeal.

Democrats vs. Republicans
Party alignment was as follows:
Republican 9 23
Democratic 17 1

Would Leave State Without Regulation

If the governor signs the measure, Illinois will have no laws whatever regulating the liquor business, a condition that has not prevailed before in generations. Enforcement of the Eighteenth amendment, control of bootleggers or suppression of saloons would be entirely up to a small Federal force and such municipalities as may choose to act. A scanning of the Arlington Heights municipal code, for instance, shows no direct prohibition of the liquor business within the Village.

Teachers for Next Year to be Chosen; Spring Vacation On

Superintendent of Schools E. D. Whitmore and members of the Teachers' committee of the Board of Education of District 25, Arlington Heights, have met this week to consider employment of teachers for the coming school year. Their report to the Board will be made promptly. Contracts issued to the teachers; so that a report will be available for the next issue of the Herald.

The Spring vacation will begin after school today (Friday) and continue until the morning of April 6. Five teachers are taking a vacation excursion tour to Washington, D. C., over the B. & O.: Mrs. Lydia Lorenzen and Misses Fern Lorenzen, Hayford, Hawley and McLaren.

Coaches of schools of Algonquin, Crystal Lake, Dundee, Barrington, Palatine and Arlington Heights are meeting at Palatine to make arrangements for spring athletics for boys of the grade schools. It is probable that both track and baseball will be undertaken on some sort of conference schedule.

To consider the annual Spring festival and exhibit, the superintendent and teachers met Wednesday afternoon. It is hoped that there will be a field day with a sand concert followed by an "open house" and general exhibit of school work, including specimens of boys' manual training and girls' sewing.

Arlington Heights State Bank Installs Notable Equipment

The Arlington Heights State Bank has just installed a very notable piece of vault equipment; a modern inventory which will be recognized as a most important safeguard for the lives of customers and employees.

Most people have an idea of the very unpleasant sensation of being locked up and helpless to get out. Add to the sensation a realization that the air supply is small, and that no more can be obtained—and the sensation becomes a horror.

Thought upon this will afford a realization of the problem that bank vault builders have worried over for years. Bank vaults have to be air-tight, to present any effective resistance to burglars; and they generally are equipped with time-locks which mean that once closed, they must stay closed until the allotted moment for opening. It is no uncommon thing for someone to be locked up in a vault accidentally. Also it is a common practice of hold-up gangs to drive bank officers and employees, also customers who may be in the bank, into the vault and there lock them up. Thus may be appreciated the worry which has troubled bank officials, and the problem which has up to this time, "stumped" vault builders.

But it is now solved by the Vault Ventilator, manufactured by the O. B. McClintock company of Minneapolis, which is the improvement the Arlington Heights State Bank with most commendable progressiveness has just installed. Ordinarily this equipment presents, on the outside of the vault, the stern and uncompromising face of the polished end of a cylinder of hardened heat-resisting steel; so that the burglar at once recognizes it as the poorest possible place to attempt an attack upon the vault. But if anyone within the vault finds the need of ventilation, he, or she, can unlock the steel core of the cylinder and withdraw it; and then slide into its place a ventilating shaft equipped with a high speed electric fan. The result is ample air supply for any number of people that may be crowded into the vault.

School Election Warms Up; Three New Names Added

Competition has appeared in the race for the Board of Education, grade schools, and the election April 11, may therefore become more exciting to the voters.

The new ticket filed contains the names of George M. Kost, 616 N. Highland avenue, for president of the board; Noble J. Puffer, 405 W. Hawthorne street, assistant county superintendent of schools, and Howard A. Helm, 609 N. Dunton avenue, for members.

SEARS' TWO ORCHESTRAS TOP STATE

Former Instructor Here To Lead Them for National Honors

The State contest for high school orchestras winning first place in District contests was held at Springfield Saturday, March 21. V. N. Sears of Barrington entered his two orchestras that had won first place in the District contest at Rockford, one from Dundee high school, the other from McHenry high school.

The playing was judged by three eminent musicians, one from the Chicago Symphony, one from the Iowa State university and one from Lincoln, Nebraska. The three classes A, B and C, were represented at the contest. Dundee in Class B took first place in the state, and McHenry, in Class C, took first, also, in the state.

This is the first time a director has had the distinction of having two orchestras, each in a different class, winning first place at a state contest.

These two orchestras are now eligible to enter the National contest which will be held in Cleveland, Ohio, about May 15, and plans are under way to send both groups.

Presbyterians Prepare Special Services, Music

"Holy Week" Palm Sunday to Easter, inclusive, is to be observed by the Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights by special services and attractions. Next Sunday morning, March 29, "His Triumphant Entry" will be the subject of the sermon by the Rev. H. A. Kossack, pastor; and "The Palms" will be sung by Mr. Robert Steinhoff, baritone soloist from Chicago.

An additional service will be held at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Special services will be held Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, with a communion service Friday; Mr. Kossack to speak successively on "The House of Prayer," "Jesus in Service," "Jesus in Retirement," "Gethsemane," and "His Betrayal."

To Give Cantata

Easter morning, new members will be received. In the evening the choir, assisted by Mr. Steinhoff, will sing a cantata, "Our Lord Victorious," by Harry Rowe Shelley. Everyone is specially invited to hear this cantata. An offering will be taken.

The Sunday after Easter will mark the fifth anniversary of the beginning of Mr. Kossack's pastorate here.

Presbyterian Men's Club Hears Talk on Bees; Elect Officers

At the monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Men's club Friday night, Mr. F. E. Briggs gave a very interesting and instructive talk on "Bees," illustrated by many lantern slides. The machine was operated by Judge W. E. Kopplin. A sample of modern hives was exhibited and honey combs in various stages of being filled.

The following officers were elected: President, F. E. Briggs; vice president, W. C. Muller; treasurer, Wm. Jahn; secretary, G. W. Zander.

The next meeting will be held April 17.

Sunday morning the following officers were ordained and installed: Mr. C. I. Davis, Mr. P. G. Williams, and Mr. P. K. Wilton.

LOCAL BREEDER A HOLSTEIN NOMINEE

Mr. H. L. Bingham, a local breeder of purebred Holstein-Friesian cattle on Dundee road near Arlington Heights, is one of 31 in Illinois and of 734 in the nation that has been nominated by fellow breeders as candidate for election as delegate to represent the Black-and-White breed at the 46th annual convention of The Holstein-Friesian association of America at Syracuse, N. Y., June 5.

It is interesting to note that there are more than 31,000 members of The Holstein-Friesian association of America which is approximately five times the membership of the other four dairy breeds combined.

SEES LIBERTY DEPENDENT ON GOOD SCHOOLS

Democracy Cracks Under Strain; Better Education to Rescue

Popular vote is of little or no use as an instrument of good government unless the people are educated to think straight, according to an address Tuesday evening by Principal H. E. Underbrink of Libertyville Township High school before the Lions club of Arlington Heights.

Under present conditions, it looks as if the people were keeping their most intelligent and principled people at home, and sending the lower grade as a rule to the legislatures to Congress, and to other public office, he said, declaring that the absurd bills introduced in legislative bodies betray their sponsors as lacking in elementary knowledge. He cited one harangue by a legislator in support of a bill to change the ratio of the diameter to the circle from 3.1416 plus, to plain 3, in the interest of simplicity. That legislator did not think straight, and the "people" sent him to make laws for them because they did not think straight.

That legislator did not think straight, and the "people" sent him to make laws for them because they did not think straight.

Crime is on the down grade in every country but America; due to education; and here it is increasing in spite of education. He would not say why; many have their theories for instance, breakdown of religion and dogma, — another prominent view telling that the schools are doing their part, but general environment more than offsets it; others feel that lack of discipline in homes is largely responsible and there are other reasons advanced.

At any rate, the situation is a direct challenge to the schools, he said, and leaders of education are determinedly tackling the problem, confident that they will solve it.

Economics and good citizenship (the old kind of civics was useless, Mr. Underbrink said) are to be taught at Libertyville high school; so that future voters can think straight on public questions, and have some standard of good citizenship to go by.

Relative freedom from disease, better ratings in intelligence tests, greater incomes and a larger proportion of those who make the pages of "Who's Who" occur in areas with the best schools. Mr. Underbrink showed citing a considerable array of facts and figures.

County Commissioner H. C. Byrd, member of the club, was welcomed after his long illness. Mr. V. I. Brown presided.

Hagenbring Announces Second Coupon Sale Friday to Tuesday

There was so much interest manifested at the first coupon sale at the Hagenbring Variety Store, a month ago that Mr. Hagenbring has arranged for a second one that starts this Friday and ends next Tuesday. Purchasers in order to secure the bargains offered, must bring with them the coupons from this week's issue. It is no small task to gather together the merchandise for such a sale. It is all new stock especially bought in large lots for the occasion. The adv. on page 8 tells its own story.

Lutheran School Vacation Starts; To Give Pageant

The St. Peter Lutheran school in Arlington Heights will be closed for spring vacation from this afternoon to Tuesday morning, April 7, according to Principal H. C. Lund. Next Monday evening, March 29, a missionary pageant will be given in the school hall by the pupils.

Green Leaves Music Dept. of Arlington High School

Spence, Green, who has had charge of the music department of the Arlington Heights high school since September, has resigned and following the presentation of the cantata Friday evening he will be no longer connected with the local high school. Mr. Green, in company with some others is forming a radio broadcasting company, a plan which he has had for some time.

Dor J. Costain, who is working for his Master's degree at Northwestern University, will take Mr. Green's place. He is experienced in the directing of bands and orchestras and has had considerable training in public school music. He will enter upon his new duties April 7.

BIG DEMAND FOR HOMES, FEW TO RENT

Real Estate Activity Picks Up; Deals Made Recently

A great scarcity of homes to rent exists in Arlington Heights. A big demand for them is reported by local real estate men. At the same time rates of rental are not high; it is revealed by inquiry around town the first of the week. There are considerable waiting lists of Chicago people wishing to rent homes.

Krause & Kehe, realtors, report six homes and four apartments rented by them in the last three weeks; also sales to the following people:

Mr. Whitemore of Lyon & Healy — brick residence, South Mitchell street.

J. Schaeffer — brick bungalow, N. Highland avenue.

R. Warsaw of Chicago — brick bungalow, N. Highland avenue.

W. C. Henke — brick residence, S. Mitchell street.

They have sold several acre tracts to Chicago people. Real estate activity is much improved, they declare. There is special need for five and six-room houses for rent.

A bond buyer scouting around town Sunday, stated that in outlying districts in or near Chicago, rents are high for medium grade apartments, as he found by a considerable search; and that a couple with a family of children find it almost impossible to get the owner to consent to lease his place on any condition.

ARLINGTON SOFA-SITTING RECORD SMASHED

Work is expected to begin very shortly on sections of the Tri-State highway (Route 54) in DuPage county. Contracts have already been awarded for two sections: One section between Roosevelt road (south of Elmhurst and 47th street, near Clarendon Hills, a distance of about 6 miles; and the stretch between 55th street and the Sanitary and Ship canal, a distance of about another 6 miles. At first but a 20-foot pavement will be laid by the county.

O. K. INDIANA END TRI STATE SUPERHIGHWAY

To Rush 26 Miles on Little Calumet; 10 Coming This Way

LET CONTRACTS IN DU PAGE CO.

Some Twelve Miles to Be Built Soon; Urge Extension Northward

Twenty-six miles of paving for the Tri-State highway, a small section of which is saved through Stonegate, Arlington Heights, was approved by the Indiana State Highway commission at a conference in Indianapolis Wednesday and Thursday last week.

To start at Chesterton, Indiana, south of Dunes Park, two 40-foot lanes on a landscaped 200-foot right of way will run westward along the south bank of the Little Calumet river, going under the main highways and railways that cross its path.

At the Cook county line at 171st street, Cook county is preparing to extend the highway straight west ten and one half miles to Cicero avenue, to be extended later northwestward into DuPage county, thence north through Arlington Heights to Milwaukee, where the highway has been already paved for a few miles.

The coming World's fair is hastening action on the Indiana section of the route, to make it the main route to the fair for autoists from the east; as existing routes go through an industrial region, and are already congested.

The right of way of the Indiana section will be parked to the river's edge, according to Robert Kingery, manager of the Chicago Regional Planning association. The two 40-foot drives will also have a strip of grass between them. This section will be known as the Calumet parkway.

Cook county has completed a survey west from the Illinois line and is now preparing detailed specifications. The Illinois Highway department has approved the project as a state aid road. The County board has written a letter to the Indiana highway department, pleading the county to continue the route westward.

From 70 to 75 per cent of the Indiana right of way has been dedicated, according to Mr. Kingery; and as the land is low and generally undeveloped, no special trouble is anticipated in obtaining the rest.

It is hoped to have at least one 40-foot pavement done on the Indiana stretch, in time for the World's fair in 1933.

DuPage County Rushes Tri-State Highway

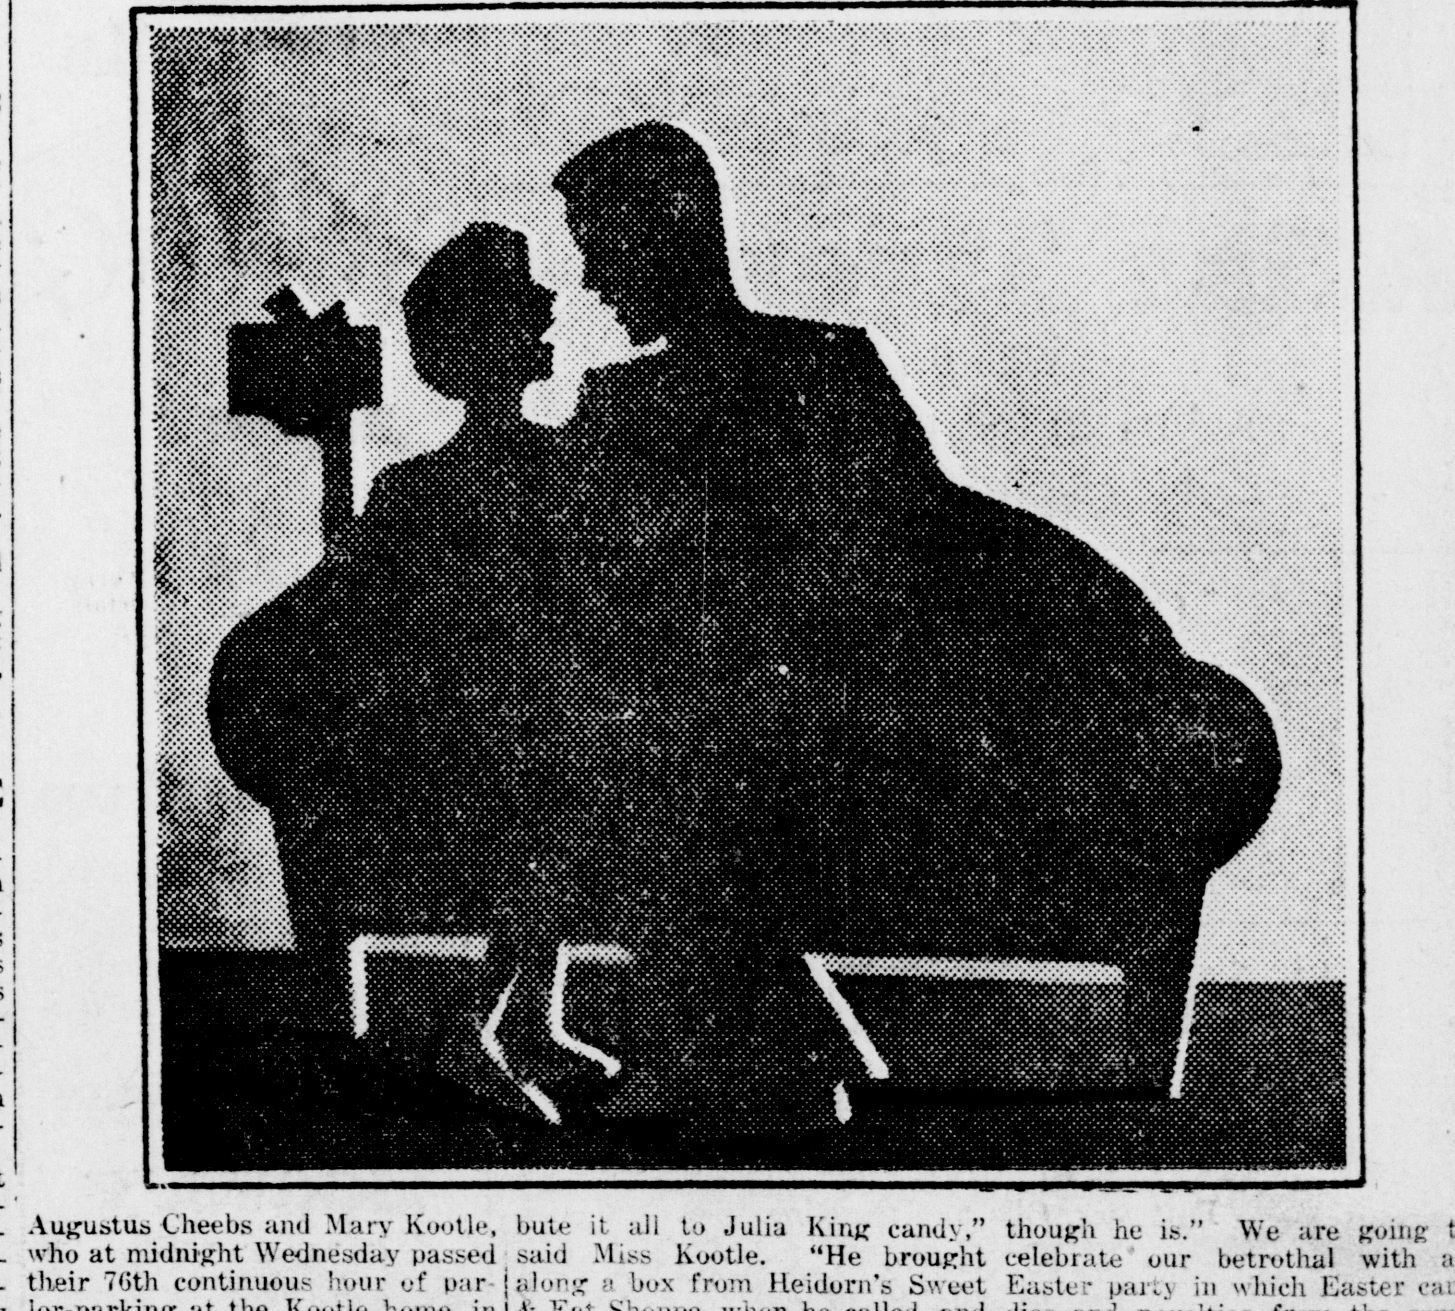

Work is expected to begin very shortly on sections of the Tri-State highway (Route 54) in DuPage county. GOOD DINNERS UNITE ARLINGTON HEIGHTS COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. U. Phytom, of Arlington Heights, for the past year up before Judge Klehm once a week for disturbing the peace, have at last patched their quarrels. Mrs. Phytom will hereafter order her supplies for the kitchen from Schmidt's Market. Mrs. Phytom used to be considered a good cook, but when the supplies for dinner arrived late, she dished them up any old way, with the result that every time the delivery boy was late, the dinner was spoiled and there was a family quarrel with friend husband. That is all past now and the neighbors say they miss the fights—all because the good eats sold by Schmidt's are delivered on time.

Augustus Cheeks and Mary Kootle, but it all to Julia King candy, though he is." We are going to celebrate our betrothal with an Easter party in which Easter candies and novelties from the same place, will have a part.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

Old Arlington's a quiet town. No one seems grinding axes. Our spirits are a bit cast down. Since we've not paid our taxes, Of border lines extend so far, We haven't fixed our fences, Fact is no one knows where they are. Or how to meet expenses. So brothers, laugh off this and that, As you jog along together, He'll brush up my last year's hat And sing about the weather.

Spring begins March 21, that's right now, spring in our hearts, in our hopes and plans. O, that reminds me, forgot to cut down the last of those rugged old Mullen stocks out by the south walk.

Wonder why some of our professional home gardeners don't emphasize the beauty and fitness of the Mullen, the Pine brand, and the Prairie Palm and other native perennials, as border background for effective placing. Could mention others but don't recall their Latin or foreign names.

I just heartily agree with that one who wrote in "The Voice of the People" last week. I mean, I agree when he said "I believe in Arlington Heights." If we believe in our town and see its needs, then it is a good thing to voice your sentiments for public good.

So many good things are taking place in our (dare we say village?) One morning this week as we were going down Miner street, heard an old familiar sound, when Lo over us and to the north a flock of wild geese flying southward. They divided into two sections. Seven in one and I should think twenty or more in the other. Hawck! hawck! they called. "It was the wild geese trumpeting, to herald in the ships of spring!"

Though we waited in fear and trembling lest some one should shoot at them, we were thankful they were allowed to go their way to the water pools unmolested by the better informed nature lovers in Arlington Heights. When one thinks of the destruction our native birds and flowers, it is cause not only for deep regret, but for real shame.

That reminds me of the revising of an old ordinance in regard to shooting inside the town limits. This new ordinance is made much clearer and stronger and placed as Ordinance 327. Our lives and property have too often been endangered by reckless shots about our heads and our home, not to give us full appreciation of this fine revision. We hailed with gladness when Mayor Mors placed the original anti-shooting ordinance on the village books. In later times we seem to need a more rigid code on this gun toting shooting menace.

It may be argued by irresponsible parents that denying the right to carry guns is the cause for so many children shooting each other, even in their homes. Just as the parents in that unspeakable Kirkland case said: "Since prohibition we parents don't know what our children are doing." Was ever such an excuse offered for a parent's lack of oversight, watchfulness for the whereabouts, associations and care for his children?

Was pleased to see some of our intelligent careful mothers brought their younger children with them to the club this week. Dear little lads and lassies; how well they behaved through the program that must have seemed long to children and how wise Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Ashton and the others were to know where the little ones were during club hours.

So Mr. and Mrs. Max Adam have a little granddaughter. Well, if they bring her up to be such a fine young woman as her mother and sister were trained to be, they are indeed to be congratulated. So that explains Mr. Adam's trip to Canada, last summer, when he told us he would come home singing "God Save The King," that was just camouflage, he went to learn some of Queen Victoria's lullabies and get a lead on etiquette for grandpas according to court rules.

Any way we who are no longer young and have no dear little grandchildren are glad in others' joy. Especially in families where children give evidence of the right understanding of parents. Right here will say I am sure we have many such right minded parents in our community. While we do pity the children of those who are so sadly lacking in their duty to their children.

I do know this: If it were mine to have charge over little children, I would not choose to bestow my help or favors on those who have good homes and careful parents. It would be a wasted effort. It would suit me more to take those who in their homes are not surrounded by all that they need for development. It would be the poor neglected child I would love to help.

Do you remember Amy Lowell's Purple Grackle—vers libre? Well that bird sat on a tree. We saw a flock of grackles fly over this week but they didn't seem to like the looks of our trees, but they flew on and never sat on a single tree. But cheer up. The Robin is here and he means business. So building will soon begin.

Out at Hillside Farm, Dr. Draper's Purple Martins haven't come. Not even the Scouts that lead the way. Hosts of black birds have put in an appearance, and they are better than no birds at all. One day a hawk flew over and it reminded us of the first years we were down here in the meadow when a great gray hawk used to come after our chickens. Well we have neither hawks nor chickens now.

Soon the storm center of local politics will begin to show life. Do you dread it? Bet most of the candidates do. You see there is no hint of smooth sailing ahead and brave is that one who enters the whirl pool.

Here lived a man honest and plain, Whose words were few, not spoke in vain;

Ever alive to human needs, Doing unnoted kindly deeds.

And never slow to make amends, If he had hurt his loyal friends; Plain though they called him, yet the grace,

Of inner greatness lit his face. Genial and gentle, kind and true, Ready the friendly thing to do; Unrecognized he passed unsung, Forgotten for a glibber tongue.

One came wordy and politic, Suave, clever in each artful trick; Frankness assumed, a smiling face, And cunning that left not a trace.

The quiet man wise counsel gave, The trickster's words would oft enslave;

With promises his point to gain, When all too late facts were made plain.

The characters are sketched quite true.

Which one the most appeals to you? The quiet, kindly, honest man, Or one who'll "do you" if he can?

If you, the honest man refuse The suave and artful one to choose; If by experience you won't learn, Then bear the punishment you earn!

No wordy promises believe, Nor let speech eloquent deceive, Put in each place men true and tried.

With God and right their own sure guide.

Good morning everybody! Spring has arrived! Building operations moving things to be at the band right over here at the E. A. Rowles works, and the best of it is, they are employing our own builders and men to do the work. Good thing superintendent Jasper doesn't have to worry about election this year, as he will certainly be kept busy and he modestly claims he is "only a hired man" and must attend to his job.

Speaking of the lovely weather this morning, Mrs. Blume called our attention to the date two years ago when little Helen Mayer passed to the more beautiful place and what a beautiful day for her funeral. Yes, like a beautiful flower in the garden of the King.

This has been a week of sad and of comforting things. St. Patrick's day, not alone do we remember the good old saint who drove the snakes out of Ireland, but in our own family, three generations have had each one born on March 17. On that day Mr. Haynes was born and there were dear little children who always came with flowers for him. This year, as each year since, he left us. They brought their beautiful flowers in remembrance. May God bless them for the beautiful though.

Then Miss Corbett, our dear loyal friend years ago brought two flags "The Harp and Shamrock" of Auld Ireland, and we promised always to put them up St. Patrick's day, and we do. My uncle William Virden French, a soldier in the Mexican war, born March 17, his picture with his big cocked hat, was one of my first memories. Then the latest generation, Oliver Russell Williams, my sister's son, whose father had Roger Williams for his ancestor. Now why shouldn't we remember St. Patrick's day?

For the sadness, the death of a well beloved woman, a desolate home and a dear little one never to know a mother's love and care. This has brought sorrow to a family who are known by many and in whose sadness we all sympathize.

There has been brightness and peace. The bright skies the fleets of clouds bearing wonderful "color schemes" the kindness of our own and of dear loyal friends, and the forward urge in the long journey that brings never a wish to go back. On and on to find our own and all that God has prepared for those who believe and love Him.

O yes, and there is such a compensating humor in the older years of life. I think it was Harriet Spofford who wrote some telling lines about the anxious attitude of her friends on her 80th birthday. Yes, you find the humor of age if it has a reflecting glint within you. Some times you note it in those who want to take your place. Oftener in those who have a bit of curiosity as to how you are keeping up and the curious ones whose work is on or near a crossing I often pass and he calls out a cheery "Hello! You going yet?" Why I can get a laugh out of that greeting to brace me for a good two miles walk. O yes, dear young folks, there is real humor for old age.

This is a truth should be told straight. The farther on in years you go; A truth I would to you relate, Humor, with age, for you will grow.

Some one your own age near, Will make a show of deference, Offer a seat, a light placed near, For age a thoughtful recompense.

You may ignore the ironic touch, When one who is not quite a friend; Says "I can't see that you change much," Discouraged waiting for the end.

If one in fact should sympathize, With early hope so long delayed; You must indeed be very wise, To keep your sense of humor staid.

Youth never bits of humor knew, Keener than comes in later years; When those you meet search you all through To find the trace where age appears.

Yes 'tis amusing when dear friends Search you with quiet worried glance; Their kind intent makes full amends, Yet humor lights the circumstance.

Those younger twenty years or more, Will urge that you are needing rest And in their kindly zeal implore, That you quit work and go out west!

They quote "To Grow old Gracefully" Is something most to be desired; Posing for grace won't trouble me, By action I am more inspired.

Dear younger ones as years go by, You will find people, kind folks, too, In all your acts, close search and spy,

To see old age disbaring you, As yet who feels no dread of age, Yet walks life's way with thankful heart, Glad for the strength still to engage, In all its way to do some part.

I'm right here now, that's why I tell, The humor of age makes me smile, With quickened senses you'll know well, What folks are thinking all the while.

—Elinore Crisler Haynes.

To the Legal Voters of Arlington Heights, in the Village Election of April 21st 1931, GREETING We Tender for Your Approval THE PEOPLES PARTY CANDIDATES & PLATFORM

JULIUS D. FLENTIE—CANDIDATE for PRESIDENT of the VILLAGE BOARD of TRUSTEES.

Born in Arlington Heights nearly fifty years ago Julius Flentie is indeed a true native son. A house holder on the south side for many years he now resides with wife and family at 411 N. Belmont Avenue. His fine record in the service of the people of this community is offered as a guaranty for the faithful conduct of the office of village PRESIDENT. His public record follows: Active member of the Volunteer Fire Department for more than twenty-five years; Member of the Board of Education School District 25 for six consecutive years;

Wheeling Township Clerk 1904-1915 (eleven years); Wheeling Township Tax Collector years of 1920 and 1921; Member of the Village Board of Trustees 1919-1923; President of the Village, 1927-1929; Present Park Commissioner since 1926. Mr. Flentie is an active member of the Arlington Heights Lions Club and a Past LIONS PRESIDENT. His interest in local enterprises has won for him an enviable reputation. A WORKER, CLEAN, ABLE, PROMPT, PATIENT and IMPARTIAL.

ELECT HIM ON HIS RECORD

is a former member of the village council 1927, 1928, 1929. Mr. Framberg is a property owner and taxpayer and has been a resident of Arlington Heights for the past twelve years. He is married, has two children and resides at 103 SOUTH STATE ROAD and is the only south side citizen seeking honors in this election. About three years ago he entered the local business field, resigning his position of trust and responsibility in the engineering department of the Benjamin Electric Manufacturing Co., to take over the Perrin Confectionery. His genial disposition and ready wit have won him a host of friends in his business endeavors. Framberg will make a valuable member of the new village council inasmuch as he is available daily during regular business hours at his place of business just one block east of the village hall.

WE RECOMMEND HIS ELECTION

WALTER KRAUSE JR.—CANDIDATE for MEMBER of the VILLAGE BOARD of TRUSTEES.

Mr. Krause is another native son who has enlisted in the campaign for a BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION of village affairs. He is thirty-four years of age, married and resides at 827 N. Dunton Avenue. He was educated in the public schools and graduated with honors from Business College where in addition to commercial subjects he received special Law and Real Estate training. Mr. Krause is a DIRECTOR of THE PEOPLES STATE BANK of ARLINGTON HEIGHTS and a successful REALTOR with offices in the center of the business district. He owns many scattered pieces of local REAL PROPERTY and consequently has a fine conception of local real estate values. He is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and of the Arlington Heights Lions Club and has always been one of the substantial sponsors of the BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT. Walter Krause Jr. was chosen as a candidate by the Peoples Party because of his first hand knowledge of problems dealing in taxation and special assessments and because of his unassuming PUBLIC SPIRIT.

HE WILL PROVE WORTHY OF HIS TRUST

was born in Chicago, Illinois, on the 19th day of August 1884. He is married and resides with his family consisting of wife and two sons at 304 Haddon Avenue. Mr. Schaefer has been a home owner and taxpayer in Arlington Heights since 1923. Has a high school and college education. He is a former professional baseball player of the Grand Rapids Club of the Central League and of course still an ardent baseball fan. He engaged in the manufacture of millwork in Chicago for many years.

but has been connected with the NORTHERN TRUST COMPANY OF ILLINOIS since 1911. Mr. Schaefer was recently honored by the President and Board of Directors of this great financial institution when they made him assistant SECRETARY in charge of the CORPORATE DEPARTMENT of the NORTHERN TRUST COMPANY. Because of this splendid financial background Mr. Schaefer was the unanimous choice of the Peoples Party as candidate for village trustee.

YOU WILL MAKE NO MISTAKE IN ELECTING THIS MAN

is another native son perhaps better identified as the son of the late Philip Meyer. He was born on the 3rd day of February, 1897, and received his education in the local schools. He is the head of the shipping department of the ARLINGTON SEATING COMPANY where, with the exception of WORLD WAR SERVICE he has been steadily employed for the past seventeen years. He is married and resides at 507 E. Euclid Avenue. Mr. Meyer is a property owner and taxpayer. "Hy" as his friends prefer to know him is a Legionnaire and a Charter Member of the local Chapter of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He served his country during the World War for three years as Boatswain's Mate attached to the U. S. S. Duncan, a Destroyer escort of transport ships with headquarters at Queenstown, Ireland. Later his duties in the relay of radio traffic took him to RUSSIA, BULGARIA, FRANCE, ITALY, GREECE, EGYPT AND TURKEY, where he was stricken with typhoid. The stretcher on which he lay in the corridor of a CONSTANTINOPLE HOSPITAL for nearly three weeks was not in the picture when "Hy" volunteered to fight to make the world safe for Democracy but he was too sick to be bothered and took philosophical view of life as he became convalescent. This war experience has been of great educational value to our candidate and we feel that he is particularly well qualified to dispense SOUND JUDGMENT from the municipal bench.

GIVE HIM YOUR VOTE — WE KNOW HE WILL MAKE GOOD

PEOPLES PARTY PLATFORM

We will strictly adhere to the BUDGET of the annual appropriation ordinance. We urge a drastic retrenchment in expenditures. We will lower village taxes.

We will solve the water problem with the advise and consent of the people. We will take such temporary measures as may be necessary to insure an adequate water supply during the summer of 1931.

We will, as your Board of Local Improvements, publish an itemized certified statement of cost of every public improvement.

The actual cost of any public improvement shall be the basis for calculating compensation due engineers, attorneys, and others employed on a percentage scale.

Surplus funds accumulating in any assessment shall and will be promptly rebated.

The records of the Village will be kept where interested citizens may have free and easy access to them.

Purchases of materials and supplies by or for the municipality shall be equitably distributed among local firms or merchants.

Local labor shall have first call to work in the construction of improvements under the jurisdiction of the Village council.

Every audit of the financial records of the Village will be made public.

We will promote activity within the zoning board of appeals and The city plan commission so that an orderly city beautiful plan may go forward.

ELECTION DAY TUESDAY, APRIL 21st

Art in Schools; Gardens, Topics at Woman's Club

The Woman's club postponed their meeting from Wednesday to Thursday last week that those who knew Mrs. Wilson might pay their last tribute of respect by attending her funeral which was held on Wednesday.

The speaker secured by Mr. Bangs for Wednesday, was unable to come out Thursday as had a previous engagement for that date. After much difficulty, he secured a speaker on the subject all were interested in—Garden Arrangement and hints on what to plant. This Miss Josephine Headly from Evanston kindly endeavored to give.

The regular business routine was cleared up. The secretary read her report of last meeting. The corresponding secretary read invitations to meetings of other clubs. The treasurer reported, among other things that the club has donated $25.00 to the Welfare and Home relief work for the year.

Awaiting the arrival of the speaker of the afternoon, the club chorus gave two delightful numbers: "The Voices of Spring" and "Come Where the Lilies Grow." Later, following the speaker, they gave "The Bells of St. Mary," in all these Mrs. C. E. A. Lorenzen, was accompanist. We are more and more proud of our chorus and the stirring songs they give us.

Miss Irene Russell, principal of the south side school, gave a talk on "Art in the School," or art as a necessary part of education. This was scheduled for an earlier meeting, but a long program left no time for Miss Russell's talk.

All were deeply interested in her helpful suggestions, and her earnest desire to enable children to be given opportunity and urge to see the beauty in all about them first in nature and in art as well. This she had endeavored to do by encouraging them to help in a small way to secure a beautiful picture loaned from some well known artist in the city. One of these fine pictures Miss Russell went to a great deal of effort to give the club the pleasure of seeing.

Her address was full of suggestive thought and both her words and the picture were much appreciated. Miss Josephine Headly said she had only short notice of coming and brief time to arrange her thoughts on the subject she was to bring to the audience. However, none found fault with her treatment of her subject. All were eager to hear about landscape gardens on limited plots of ground, and at the finale of her talk, plied her with many questions, which she courteously invited them to ask. We are sure the gardens this summer in Arlington Heights will bear witness to Miss Headly's helpful hints.

The president, Mrs. E. D. Whitmore, distributed to the members a questionnaire or questions, regarding the programs and policy of the club, and also on choice of meeting place next year.

The program was certainly a full one, well carried out.

Next Meeting
The next meeting will be held April 1, "The Modern Home," "The Place of Books in the Home," Mrs. James H. Jackson, district chairman of literature and drama.

The Home Town Dollar

The home town dollar might be defined as the dollar which stays in the home town, and through the continual change of hands purchases food, clothing and the necessities of life for the people of the home town and in its life of service brings joy, happiness and comfort to those whose hands it passes through.

The greatest asset of the home town dollar lies in its circulation through the series of wage earners, merchant, banker, factory, producer and back again to the wage earner, who starts it back over the cycle—and so long as it stays in the community that dollar adds to the purchasing power of the citizenship.

The prosperity of a community is determined through the volume of business done by the merchants and manufacturers within its confines. This business depends upon the earning power of the citizenry, the amount which is spent by them in support of local business and industry.

The loyalty of a city's people in making their dollars become town dollars is reflected in the general progress and development of our cities and towns.

There is a true saying that communities don't just grow. They are built by man—men and women who visualize a city beautiful made up of churches, good schools, playgrounds, parks and a place in which one likes to live, work and play. When one enters a city which is composed of well kept residences, attractive business houses, good schools and clean streets it is evident that there they have found a community which is prosperous and content. Such a place seen through the human eye is a place built of stones, brick and mortar, presenting a pleasing picture, but behind these physical evidences of progress lies the fact that the life of the community is being carried on by a high sense of civic pride.

It is evident that in the community the home town dollar is daily going its rounds of the "butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker," and its travels moulding the character of the city.

Confirmations
Palm Sunday at
Lutheran Church

In compliance with an ancient custom reaching back to the early centuries of the Christian Church, twenty-six children, who have completed the religious course prescribed by the church, will be confirmed in an impressive ceremony at St. Peter's Lutheran church next Sunday morning.

Confirmation signifies the renewal of the baptismal vow made in infancy and the reception into membership with the church. It is the desire of those who have charge to make this service deeply impressive upon the hearts of the children and the other worshippers. The altar will be furnished with fresh flowers and an arch covered with ferns and white flowers will be erected, under which the children will kneel for the laying on of hands. An attractive folder containing the full order of service will be presented to every worshipper.

To accommodate the two classes of confirmands, two services will be held, a German service at 9:30 and an English service at eleven.

Following are the names of the members comprising the confirmation class of this year:

German Class—Arnold Hinz, Leonard Thake, Kurt Schmuck, Verma Schoenbeck, Margaret Hone, Hermann Elvire, Bohrens, Elizabeth Bartel, Hilda Garms, Mildred Laseke, Gertrude Laseke, Caroline Kranz, Lenora Hetzke.

English Class—Walter Meyer, Walter Heidemann, Alvin Kahling, George Weisberger, Frederick Netze, Mrs. Wilbert Hartmann, Irene Netze, Helen Netze, Walter Osterg, Alfred Wolff, Bernhard Wolf, Elberta Meier, Margaret De Pew, Verlie Wicklenkamp, Margaret Windheim, Irma Windheim, Margaret Netze, Raymond Meyer, and Edmund Weinrich.

The Sunday school classes will not assemble next Sunday. Twenty-six children who have completed the fundamental religious course prescribed by the church, will assume the pledge of allegiance on Palm Sunday and appear before the altar for their public confirmation. We invite you to attend this most impressive service of the year.

The Rapids of the Christian Day school will present an entertaining and instructive mission pageant on Monday evening at eight. This pageant, written by Mr. O. Koehnke, will visualize the extensive missionary and educational work of the synod and will answer the oft repeated question: "Where does the money go?" It is presented under the auspices of the missionary expansion committee to stimulate interest in the nation-wide inner mission project of the Missouri Synod. Come and enjoy this program. No admission will be charged and no collection will be lifted.

Registration for German Communion during holy week, Tuesday, March 31, at the home of Rev. Noack. Registration for English Communion, Wednesday, April 1, at the home of Rev. Fricke.

Good Friday is the Christian Memorial Day, set aside to commemorate the death of our Savior. Every true follower of the Christ will want to attend the impressive service and hear the heart stirring message of this memorable anniversary day.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Matter" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 22.

The Golden Text was, "I am the Lord; that is my name; and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images" (Isaiah 42:8).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever" (1 John 2:15, 17).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "A knowledge of error and of its operations must precede that understanding of Truth which destroys error, until the entire mortal, material error finally disappears, and he eternal verity, man created by and of Spirit, is understood and recognized as the true likeness of his Maker" (p. 252).

Right of way difficulties are holding up the progress of the interstate boulevard in other sections. The DuPage county board recently passed a resolution asking the State to speed up work in paving the unit of the highway from Roosevelt road (through Elmhurst) north to Irving Park boulevard (at Wood Dale); in order to relieve traffic on other narrow roadways in Elmhurst. From Wood Dale to Arlington Heights is about 8 miles, now covered in part by Busse road.
Progress on Route 59
Route 59, with plans subject to Federal approval, is to be paved this summer from Plainfield north to Ogden avenue. It is expected. This route goes through West Chicago, and probably will be extended north through Cook county, and also southward, taking through north and south traffic away from congestion at Joliet. DuPage county has started setting posts along the 100-foot right of way.

This Woman In 4 Weeks
Lost 17 Pounds of Fat

Here's a letter written October 21, 1929, by Mrs. Fred Barringer of Lewistown, Montana, that ought to be read by every overweight woman in America.

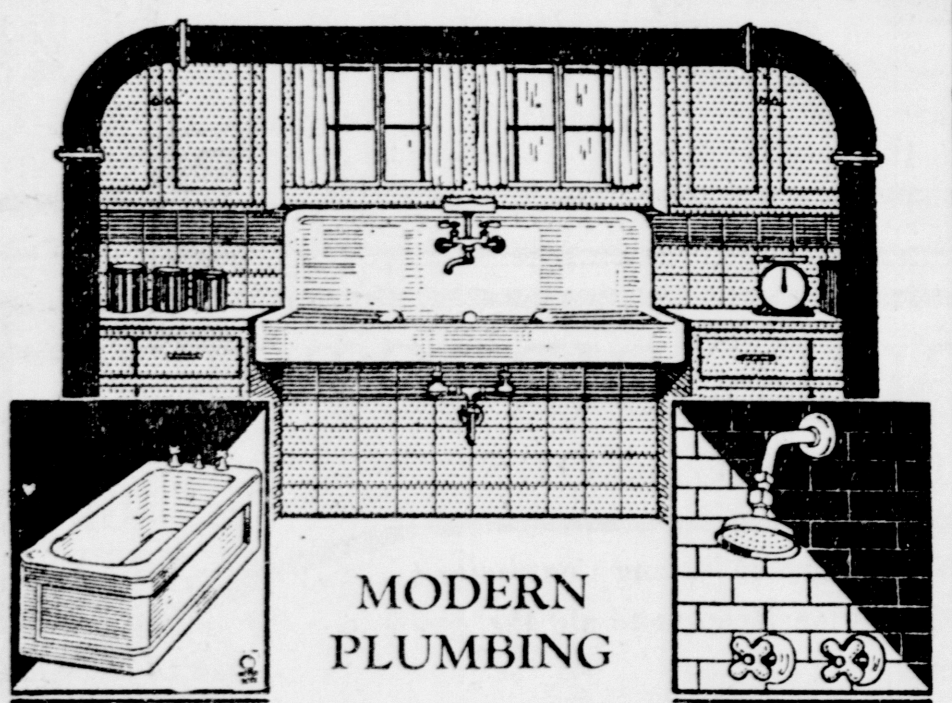

Gentlemen: I started taking Kruschen every morning as directed as I was very much overweight and wanted to reduce.

I had tried going on a diet but would get so hungry that my diet would not last long, so I decided to give "Kruschen Salts" a fair trial. The day I started to take them I weighed 256 lbs. and at present, which has been just four weeks, I weigh 239 lbs. And I must say, I feel better in every way, besides looking much better.

May all large people, both men and women, who want to reduce in an easy way, give Kruschen Salts a fair trial. I am sure it will convince anyone.

A bottle of Kruschen Salts that lasts four weeks costs but 85c at Wendt's Drug Store, Arlington Heights—or any drug store in America. Take one half teaspoon in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning. To help reduce swiftly cut out pastry and fatty meats and go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar.

The Kruschen way is the safe way to reduce—Try one bottle and if not joyfully satisfied—money back.

V. F. W. Auxiliary

Have you ever felt blue and alone and that feeling "What's the use, nobody cares?" Your heart felt sore, the sunshine seemed gone and nothing but dark clouds in the sky? With all this nothing worth while in view for the future, nothing at all to look forward to in reality living for you felt sure the end was not so far away. Then suddenly, the sun shone, somebody did care after all for did they not let you hear from them? Weren't they smiling at you and really mean the handclasp? Boy! What a bracing it gave you, and what a determination to live. For the clouds had really passed away at least for a time and it did seem good to be alive. Yes, many of "Our Boys" that marched away in their uniforms with a step full of vigor and in the very best of health so long ago find themselves in this position time and time again. And for whom have they sacrificed all this? Do you know? Yes, of course you do! For wasn't it for you and I? Wasn't it to protect the Stars and Stripes?

Oh, let us not forget our dear boys! They too loved life and looked forward to big things ahead. Even though these things of a great future for them cannot materialize, let us break the monotony of the hospital routine, visit them and bring them some cheer. For after all it is just a small thing to do and it does mean so much to them to know you still remember. This is the reason the Ladies' Auxiliary to Prospect Post No. 1337, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. are having the "We Remember" party on the evening of April 17. And let's all remember for their sake and let the result of the party be the means of bringing the cheer we just read of to them.

Regular meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Prospect Post No. 1337 will be held tonight, Mar. 27, in the Community hall at 8 o'clock.

Legion Auxiliary

Regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Fenton.

It was hoped Mrs. Scogrum, president of the ninth district would be there, to give out the district essay prizes to our two guests, Herbert Kirchhoff who received first prize of $3.00 and Roy Sazman second prize of $2.00.

But she was unable to attend so Mrs. Bernhard presented the prize money to them. It is to be regretted that Herbert Kirchhoff did not have a copy of his essay to read, but Ray had his copy so for the benefit of those who were absent at our last meeting, he again read his. An effort is being made to get Herbert's essay returned from the State and if successful it will be read and published at a later date.

A lovely report was given by Mrs. Jorstad covering things of interest discussed at the recent meeting of the district at Des Plaines, which about six of our members attended.

Mrs. Gould, membership chairman, is working hard, so if you are eligible for membership in the American Legion Auxiliary and wish to join, get in touch with her.

We were glad to hear Mrs. Hooke is home again.

A series of bridge luncheons is to be given by the Auxiliary members, full details of which are given in another column.

After adjournment of business meeting a social hour was enjoyed by all during which Mr. Fenton favored the auxiliary with very delightful piano selections, then later a sing-for-all.

Facts About The Bonus

By Veterans of Foreign Wars
In an effort to clear up understanding on the part of the general public and veterans themselves in reference to adjusted compensation certificates, as revealed during recent discussions of the so-called "soldier bonus" in Congress, the following analysis has been prepared by National Headquarters of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. A.

Origin: The adjusted compensation act was created as a means of adjusting the pay of the veterans with the average wage that was paid by the government to civilians during the war. The act was passed on May 17, 1924, over the veto of President Coolidge.

Certificates: Fundamentally, the adjusted compensation certificates are twenty-year endowment policies and the earliest maturity date of those first issued on Jan. 1, 1945.

Basic: These certificates were computed on the basis of $1.00 a day for home service and $1.25 a day for overseas service with a maximum of $500.00 for domestic service and the maximum of $625.00 for overseas service.

To Whom Issued: The veteran entitled to receive one of these certificates must have been in service after April 5, 1917, or before November 12, 1918. They were issued to all veterans but not to officers above the grade of Captain in the Army, Lieutenant in the Navy and First Lieutenant in the Coast Guard.

Beneficiaries: The veteran has the privilege of naming anyone the beneficiary of the policy. If the veteran dies before making application, application may be made by his dependents, either the widow, the children or the father or mother, if they held the status of dependents.

Amounts: The face value of these certificates varies with the period of service and the age of the veteran certificates range in value from $125.00 to $1,680.

$50.00 Provision: If adjusted service credit amounted to less than $50.00, the amount was paid in cash and no certificate was issued.

Time Limit: The original time limit for making application of these certificates expired January 1, 1928. This expiration date was extended by an act passed in June 1930, to January 2, 1935.

How paid: Full value of each certificate is paid in cash upon the death of the veteran to his beneficiary. If the veteran dies before making application and the application is made by a relative, the certificate is paid in four quarterly installments.

Number Issued: On February 19, 3,451,374 certificates had been issued by the government with a face value of $3,493,460,287.

Date of Maturity: Twenty years from date of issue or 1945 for those issued in 1925.

Loans: Each certificate bears a loan value two years after date of issuance. After the act passed on February 27, the veteran in possession of a certificate bearing a loan value was entitled to apply for 50 per cent of the face value of his certificate in the form of a loan.

Interest: Interest on these loans was originally charged at the rate of 2 per cent above the district rate of the federal reserve districts in which the veteran resides. Under the act passed on February 27, a flat rate of 4 1/2 per cent interest charge was created.

Death Claims: To the beneficiaries of $9,193 veterans who have died since the Armistice, the government has paid the face value of adjusted service compensation certificates to the amount of $90,289,536. From April 1, 1927 to January 1, 1931, the government made a total of 2,357,697 loans amounting to $215,435,144. These loans were made to 1,300,000 individual veterans.

Redeemed: With $215,435,144 loaned by the government by January 1, 1931, only $8,848,815 in loans have been repaid.

Cash Payment: Immediate cash payment in sums of $50.00 and less, was made to 124,057 veterans amounting to $4,300,000.

Quarterly payments: A total of 98,940 claims for adjusted compensation have been filed by dependents of veterans.

Failed to Apply: Approximately 135,000 veterans have never applied for the certificates to which they are entitled.

WHEELING

Wheeling Camp Royal Neighbors of America entertained members from Deerfield and Highland Park Park Camps at their regular social meeting last Thursday evening. About 60 Neighbors were present, 25 of whom were members of the sister camps. Following the ritualistic work the meeting was placed in charge of a committee for a program of games and entertainment appropriate to the season. After an hour and a half of games which were interspersed with Irish songs and jokes, refreshments were served which also flamed the "forbidden color." Altogether the evening was spent in a merry fashion.

A good sized audience enjoyed the entertainment given by the children of the public school last Friday evening. The program was varied, with band music, comedy sketches by the several rooms and monologues all well rendered and much appreciated by the audience. Mr. and Mrs. Harrington Jacobs entertained at a "500" party in their home on Saturday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fassbender and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Twombly. Mrs. I. Mitchell and Mr. Fassbender were the lucky players who carried off the prizes. A mid-night luncheon was served before the guests departed.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Wm. Krueger, Sr., is again seriously ill at her home here.

Mrs. Jos. Bellmore, Sr., was confined to her home because of illness last week. We are glad to learn that she has improved greatly.

Mrs. Henry Winkelhofer, who had not been well for several weeks, was operated on in the Belmont hospital, Chicago, Monday morning. We hope she may soon be on the road to recovery.

Mr. Aug. Grewe has been suffering from a throat infection during the past week which has kept him confined to his home.

The grand opening of the "Shield of Quality" grocery store was well attended by old and new friends of the store. Three baskets of groceries and a basket of fruit were given away at the close of the day on tickets given to all customers during the day. The lucky patrons were Mr. E. Kruse, Miss Verna Johnson, Miss Violet Richardson and Mrs. R. Gisselbrecht.

Miss Madeline Gieseke narrowly escaped serious injury on being struck by a hit and run driver last Saturday afternoon. She was hiking on the edge of the 40 ft. pavement south of the village with several companions. They were facing traffic which was light, when this car crowded to the edge of the pavement and struck Madeline's hand, breaking a bone and grazed her body.

The A. Fallscher family have moved into the old Arnold residence on the west side of Milwaukee avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Welfin, Mr. and Mrs. L. Behrens, Mr. and Mrs. O. Utadel and the Mesdames A. Utadel, Sr. and F. Utadel were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Utadel, Jr., in Elgin, on Sunday.

NEWER TYPE INVESTMENT EXPLAINED

M. C. Greener on "Fixed Trusts" in April Bankers Monthly

An especially advantageous type of investment, relatively new in America, is described by Mr. Marvin C. Greener of Palatine, vice president of the Congress Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago, in an article, "Fixed Investment Trust Shares," in the coming April issue of the Bankers Monthly.

What a fixed trust is, what the peculiar advantages to investors and to industry and the country of one well set up, how it is set up, the origin and rapid extension of this new system, types of fixed trusts and what to look out for in making the best investment, are told by Mr. Greener in this article. He writes in part:

What Fixed Trust Is
The question naturally arises: What is a fixed trust?
It is, in reality, nothing more than a trust fund. A depositor deposits with a trust company, which issues against the deposited stocks shares of beneficial interest—these in turn are sold to the public. The trustee agrees to hold the deposited stocks for the benefit of the share-holders and to administer the trust fund in accordance with certain definite methods of procedure as defined in a trust agreement sometimes referred to as a trust indenture.

Advantages to Investors
The investor desiring to buy common stocks must face many hazards. What stocks should he buy? In the vast majority of cases, he does not have sufficient funds to enable him to buy enough stocks to get the proper diversification; and even if he has a large amount of money, in all probability he will not get for himself the scientific worked out degree of diversification that may be had through the purchase of fixed trust shares.

The average American is a speculator to a certain degree. Most of us seem to have a natural tendency constantly to switch our stock investments, in spite of the definite knowledge that very few, if any, in-and-out traders profit in the long run. The purchaser of fixed trust shares is relieved, to a large extent, from the temptation to trade, and, therefore, puts himself in a position to reap full benefit from the future appreciation which it is believed is sure to come to the owners of sound stocks.

There are some trusts which confine their portfolios to one class of industry; such as, public utilities, bank shares, and others. The general practice is to diversify in four major groups; namely, railroads, oils, industrials and utilities.

How Price Is Set
The price at which trust shares are sold is determined by calculating the last sale value of the shares of deposited stocks, to which is added brokerage, the trustee's fees, and a reasonable per cent to cover the cost of operation by the depositor or corporation and to provide a profit to the distributing dealers.

The premium, or "loading charge," paid by the purchaser of trust shares, is entirely justified when due consideration is given to the many services rendered the shareholder, and usually represents a smaller cost than the investor would pay direct to a trust company for the same service.

New System Succeeds
More than $300,000,000 was invested in fixed trust shares in 1930, according to Mr. Greener. The management type of trust originated in Great Britain, and it is there that they have reached their highest state of development. . . . Every few days an investment house of wide national or international reputation, not heretofore identified with the fixed trust, announces its public approval of the fixed trust idea.

Aids General Business
By thus increasing the safety and convenience of stock investments, the industrial and business advancement of the nation may be substantially increased, Mr. Greener implies. Provision is generally made for eliminating holdings that might prove unprofitable.

PURE MILK MEN CONFER OVER 'BASE'

Definite Recommendations to Board of Directors

Delegates from 167 local organizations of the Pure Milk association, attending the advisory conference at the Auditorium hotel, Chicago, March 23, selected from among themselves seventeen men to sit on a "jury." This jury listened to the various plans presented by the delegates throughout the morning and afternoon sessions, in an effort to adjust the production problem of the membership.

At three o'clock the jury, with W. L. McKinney of Clinton, Wisconsin, as chairman, retired to a separate chamber where they decided on three recommendations to be made to the Board of Directors, after being passed upon by the delegates assembled. The individuals who composed this jury were Mr. McKinney for District 2, F. C. Landers for District 10, August Rump for District 14, George Bark for District 8, Gilbert Amador for District 1, Herb Bodden for District 3, Ed. Mullenbeck for District 4, Marcus W. Damisch for District 9, H. Pohlman for District 12, Elmer Erickson for District 13, Wm. Krieger for District 15, Herman Hornfield for District 16, Henry Mowford for District 17, Clayton Howe for District 6, Fay H. McKenzie for District 5, Rollo Davis for District 7.

The recommendations that were made and approved follow: "Whereas the committee is heartily in sympathy with the man with the low base and believes he should be helped if at all possible, to that end we recommend the following: "1. That all base on milk be considered as personal property and that all or any part thereof may be sold subject to the discretion of the local officers.

"2. That the sales committee endeavor to secure the basic milk dropped and that the first 5 per cent retained be given to the man with low base such man to be determined by the local officers.

"3. That the advisory committee go on record as being heartily in favor of endorsing a movement whereby the central office would instruct all locals in the country to hold a meeting for the purpose of electing a committee of five to serve as an adjustment committee to interview all men with an abnormally high base asking them of their willingness to cooperate by giving 5 per cent of their 100 per cent base to the committee for adjustment."

It is expected that the Board of Directors will meet during the first week in April to consider all the plans presented and try to definitely determine just what plan or plans should be adopted.

A great deal of the day's discussion had to do with the evening up of the base, a feeling being prevalent that the man with the high base would be willing to give 5 per cent to a neighbor with a low base, such willingness being considered as the only way to make any adjustment. The time for building base was also discussed as some length.

The meeting was presided over by W. S. McQueen, president of the association. Don N. Geyer, manager, gave a short talk in the afternoon in which he stressed the importance of keeping the surplus milk at home. In this regard he said, "Keep the surplus off the market. We will protect anyone who keeps surplus at home and no plan should be allowed which will penalize the man who keeps the surplus on his farm."

NORTHWESTERN R. R. START NEW DELIVERY SERVICE

Arrangements for door-to-door package freight service between certain designated Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota points on the Chicago & North Western railway have been completed and will go into effect May 1 with plans under way to extend this service to cover every state on the North Western system, H. W. Beyers, Vice President, traffic of the road, Chicago, announces.

"The Chicago & North Western railway for a considerable period has been led to believe by its patrons that there is a quite general demand for through bills of lading from store-door to store-door, including pick-up by the railroad at the point of origin and delivery at the destination point to stores and industries.

"In order to make this possible, we have been negotiating with draymen at stations on our line to place ourselves in a position to establish a tariff which will include within its service the issuance of a bill of lading at the shipper's industry, picking up the freight at that point, and making delivery at stores or industries as the case may be.

"The North Western has been ready for several months to provide a tariff of this nature, but has held it up in order that some other lines might have an opportunity to establish similar service concurrently if they so desired. It has been concluded definitely now that this service be made effective quite generally in Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota and that shortly thereafter similar arrangements will be effected and put into operation in all the nine states served by the Chicago & North Western Railway.

"This plan does not contemplate free pick-up and delivery service. The charges for this additional service are shown in the tariff and are on the basis of actual cost to the railroad for such drayage. In addition to this, every effort is being made to speed up the service to the end that for as great a radius as possible, patrons may receive next morning delivery of freight."

Senator Wheeler To Address Forum: "What Nation Needs"

"What the Nation Needs," a first hand report of the progressive program resulting from their recent conference in Washington, March 12-13, will be given Sunday afternoon, March 29, by U. S. Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, in the Adelphi theater as the weekly lecture of the Chicago Forum. Senator Wheeler is one of the most prominent in the Progressive bloc which is to figure so largely in the coming Congress.

The meeting was presided over by W. S. McQueen, president of the association. Don N. Geyer, manager, gave a short talk in the afternoon in which he stressed the importance of keeping the surplus milk at home. In this regard he said, "Keep the surplus off the market. We will protect anyone who keeps surplus at home and no plan should be allowed which will penalize the man who keeps the surplus on his farm."

EAST MAINE

The Ladies' Aid have announced the dates for their bazaar party as Friday and Saturday, April 10 and 11, in the school hall as usual. Game will start at 8 o'clock. They extend a hearty welcome to their many friends to come and enjoy the evening with them.

Evelyn Finnern was a charming little hostess to twelve school chums Saturday afternoon at a party in honor of her birthday anniversary. Bunco and other games served to pass the time most enjoyably. Evelyn's birthday is March 17 so green and white decorations were used in fixing up the birthday table in true St. Patrick's Day style.

Services at St. Matthew's Lutheran church for the Holy week will be as follows: Holy Communion will be celebrated both Monday, Thursday and Good Friday, services Thursday at the usual hour, 10 a. m. in English and German. Good Friday church will start at 9:30 and will be in German. Services Easter morning will be in German and Easter Monday an English service will be held at 7 p. m.

Eight young people were publicly examined by Rev. J. Toepel at St. Matthew's Lutheran church Sunday afternoon in the presence of a large and interested gathering of relatives and friends and by their clear ready answers to the questions put to them, showed they were ready to profess their confirmation vows Palm Sunday morning. This bright class five of whom were examined in German and three in English, are as follows: Chester Steil, Alma Bruhn, Helen Hennig, Dorothy Koch, Loraine Engel, William Tagtmeier, Richard W. and Margaret Poehls.

The members of the Cook County Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company were given their annual treat last week when each one received a dividend check from the company. This dividend the total of which amounted to about $14,500, represents a certain percentage of the premiums paid in by the members in insurance on their trucks and cars in the year 1930, and still leaves a substantial surplus in the treasury which is more than ample to take care of all needs and claims of the members. The company is now in its fourteenth year of business and going along stronger than ever. Mutual protection and hearty cooperation, for one and one are the mottoes of the company and are the two factors mainly responsible for the success and standing of same today.

Thursday evening, March 19, was the regular meeting night of East Maine P. T. A., but so many other interesting things took place that same night that it was found necessary to postpone the business meeting until March 26. To begin with the members and their families assembled in the school basement where at 6:30 a bounteous supper was spread before them and like one big, happy family, old and young proceeded to enjoy their evening meal. But that was just a start, for after the supper things had been cleared away, the crowd was ushered to the Croatian school hall on Potter road where more treats were in store. An enjoyable program of singing and dancing was put on by 35 pupils of the Green Dancing and Dramatic school of Chicago who presented their "Spring Follies." Following the program, Mr. C. M. Himel, well known principal of our own Maine High was called upon. Mr. Himel spoke briefly but interestingly on the subject of Parent-teacher associations and concluded by inviting all parents present to attend the P. T. A. meetings held monthly at Maine. The entire evening was thoroughly delightful and great credit is due the program committee who arranged such an elaborate entertainment for the occasion.

Scarecrows Don't Scare Crows If Left Unchanged

Urbana, Ill., March 21.—Crows and blackbirds are a lot like people and have to be handled accordingly in preventing the extensive damage to planted corn, says G. C. Oederkirk, specialist of the federal biological survey, who is cooperating in this state with the Illinois Natural History Survey and the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. All of them can be fooled some time, some of them can be fooled all of the time, but all of them can not be fooled all of the time, he explained. Consequently, mechanical scares used to keep them away from newly planted fields, must be changed frequently.

"Damage by crows and blackbirds usually occurs at the time seed is planted and continues until the plants are several inches above ground. During this period the most efficient means of protecting seed is by alternating the scares so that something new and objectionable to the birds is maintained in the fields at all times.

"Straw-stuffed human effigies may serve, but the birds may disregard such device after a few days. Shiny pieces of tin, glass, newspaper or brightly colored paper may be strung along fences at the edge of fields or twine strung tied to poles may support various objects if fences are not available for that purpose.

"Devices revolving in the wind will keep the birds away for a time, but like all mechanical scares, they are effective for perhaps a few days; and should be changed frequently if full protection is desired. "Poisoning and other methods of control are not recommended because of the uncertainty of results and the danger of destroying beneficial birds."

State Pushes Planting of Its Highways

With several hundred thousand shrubs and seedlings already planted on roadsides, and millions of trees now in process of propagation for planting within two or three years, Illinois is making material progress in its plans for highway beautification, according to the Chicago Motor Club.

One of the most extensive roadside landscaping plans now under way is that pertaining to Ill.-64, between St. Charles and Elmhurst. The state department of public welfare is supplying evergreens from the Lincoln State school and colony. Planting is being done by inmates of the St. Charles school for boys, who work under the direction of civic organizations. The work is being done east from St. Charles and is expected to be completed to Elmhurst, a distance of approximately eighteen miles, next year.

Rondy H. Brandon, director of the department of public welfare, declared that as soon as the widening operations are completed on state routes 5, 6 and 18, his department would proceed to plant trees and shrubs along those roads. Seedlings already been planted along Ill.-6 in the vicinity of Wheaton.

In Cook and Lake Counties
Approximately 75,000 small trees were planted by the Forest Preserve district on River road in Cook county last year, and an equal number are to be set out this spring, in ground already cultivated. Lake county groups have done some planting on Ill.-59A.

Plans for the beautification of Ill.-57, to be known as the Skokie Valley highway and to be completed in about two years, as the most impressive. An unknown donor has contributed $50,000 for landscaping this route.

Preliminary Work
A large amount of work on roadsides preliminary to planting has been accomplished by the bureau of maintenance, a branch of the state division of highways. This department has seeded many miles of right of way; removed objectionable vegetation; trimmed trees and removed dead trunks; cleaned up trash, and smoothed rough slopes.

The state highway department, according to the motor club, is adding to highway beautification by producing a more graceful design of culverts and bridges.

Road Beauty Economic Asset

"While we must give most of our attention to the material phases of road building, such as widening and grade separations, we must not lose sight of the benefits to be derived in a few years from a modest program of roadside planting now," declared Charles M. Hayes, president of the motor club. "Any one who has been abroad cannot help but be impressed by the beauty of the towering trees, at regular intervals, which are to be found on each side of most of the roads over there."

"With surprisingly small effort, the same beauty can be ours. Not only do roadside trees offer a treat for the eyes in summer, but evergreens, such as are being planted in large numbers on our highways, serve as excellent snow fences in winter."

Find Congress Passed Program of President

Washington, March 13.—The record of the Seventy-first Congress reveals a high degree of cooperation with the President, despite the not infrequent controversies between the White House and Capitol hill. Of the three score measures recommended by Mr. Hoover, only six failed to receive favorable action by the Congress, while those passed included nearly every piece of legislation vital to the Presidential program.

Despite the war threats issued by political antagonists in the legislative branch, the Chief Executive in his first two years succeeded not only in fulfilling all his pre-election pledges, but also completed a vast additional legislative program.

In summary, the President's recommendation which received legislative consent make an imposing compilation. The farm relief measures including creation of a Federal Farm Board and revision of agricultural rates in the tariff received Congressional approval along with a revision in industrial rates and reorganization of the tariff commission. The President's plea for the reappointment in the House was upheld along with the provision for a decennial census. The Senate ratified the London Naval Treaty and the French debt settlement and the war claims and debts between the United States and the Central powers were approved by the Congress.

Upon Mr. Hoover's request for increased public building appropriations, increased rivers and harbors appropriations and power for air mail expansion the necessary legislation was enacted. Likewise his recommendation for income tax reduction in 1929 was carried out and additional funds were appropriated for the Merchant Marine.

Approval was given for the various reorganization projects including the Federal Power Commission, the Federal Radio Commission, and the coordination of all Veterans' activities under Veterans' administration. Funds were provided for the Boulder Dam project and appropriations were made to meet the expenses of the Commission on Conservation of the Public Domain.

Appropriations for construction of Federal prisons were provided and the reorganization measures for the parole and probation systems in Federal prisons were enacted into law. Also the transfer of Federal prohibition enforcement to the Department of Justice was effected.

The President succeeded in putting his emergency relief program through Congress intact. Not only were the increased and augmented building plans passed but the emergency construction fund and the appropriation in the department of Agriculture bill for drought relief also received favorable action.

In comparison with the legislative action passed under the President's recommendation, the measures which he sponsored that did not receive legislative action are few. The measures upon which the Congress failed to act are the World Court Protocol; the strengthening

Charlie Chaplin At United Artists

Charlie Chaplin's "City Lights" swings into its third record breaking week at the United Artists Theater. Never has any picture received such a tremendous ovation as Chaplin's did. Thousands of people are coming to see it for the second and third time.

"City Lights" created a furor of excitement in New York, Los Angeles, London and Berlin.

Assisting Mr. Chaplin in this romantic comedy are Virginia Cherrill as the blind flower girl; Harry Myers, old-time comedian; Hank Mann, Allan Garcia and Florence Lee.

"City Lights" took three years to make and at a cost of $1,500,000. It is synchronized in perfect sound, the music score being written by Chaplin.

"Parlor, Bedroom & Bath" At the Roosevelt Theatre

Buster Keaton's third talking picture and his funniest is "Parlor, Bedroom & Bath," now playing at the Roosevelt Theatre. "Parlor, Bedroom & Bath" is taken from the stage play of the same name, that proved a riot on Broadway.

Buster Keaton plays the timid Reggie Irving, who gets himself advertised as a "great lover" and then finds life nothing but complications in which two many pretty women and a jealous husband figure largely and hilariously.

An all-star cast has been selected to assist Mr. Keaton. They are Charlotte Greenwood, Reginald Denny, Dorothy Christy, Cliff Edwards, Sally Eilers, Joan Peers, Natalie Moorhead, Edward Brophy, and many other favorites having prominent roles.

Marion Davies At The Oriental

The greatest comedy that Marion Davies ever made is "It's a Wise Child" coming to the Oriental Theater, Friday. "It's a Wise Child" is proclaimed the funniest thing that Miss Davies has ever done.

In the role of Joyce, the town belle who is believed to have committed an indiscretion, Miss Davies scores new triumphs.

One of the greatest casts ever assembled in one picture is in "It's a Wise Child." Besides Marion Davies there are Sydney Blackmer, Polly Moran, Lester Vail, Marie Prevost, James Gleason, Clara Blandick, Johnny Arthur, Ben Alexander, Robert McWade, and a host of others.

On the stage next Friday, there will be America's Dancing Fool, Tom Patricola, in many legitimate shows and is considered one of the greatest eccentric dancers in America.

Nortown Theater Acoustically Perfect

Heralded by sound experts the city over, as the most acoustically perfect cinema place in the world, the new Balaban & Katz Nortown Theater, Western at Devon, will make its public debut Saturday, April 4.

The most important feature embodied in the construction of the Nortown is the auditorium itself.

Project Stories

COOKING

Ruth Meier
Dist. 11, Barrington Tp.
I did cooking and housekeeping for my father and brother all summer and am still doing it.

I learned to set the table properly first of all. I learned to cook potatoes, meat and to make gravy. I can also make candy, puddings and fix vegetables. I can bake cake, cookies and pies. I liked cooking and learn rapidly. There is a lot to learn about cooking for I am still learning how to prepare different things day after day. Most of all my job cooking is my hobby. I am thirteen years old. I am in the eighth grade, I hope to pass and go on with my cooking although I am cooking now too, but I like it better in summer when I can be home all day and give more time and thought to my cooking.

MY SEWING PROJECTS

Lenora Mehlich
Orchard Place School, Dist. 66
For the summer of 1929 I chose sewing for one of my projects. I like this project and I am going to take sewing again this year. Some of the things I made are: One pair of pillow cases, two aprons, one dress, one scarf, and a buffet set. I also stitched some clocks for a quilt. I made many other things.

which has been so designed as to entirely eliminate echoes and vibrations; in fact, nothing has been left undone to make this newest of the Balaban & Katz fleet of theaters the finest, most sound perfect and most intimate amusement center in the country.

"Honor Among Lovers" On the Chicago Screen

One of the most dramatic pictures ever to reach any screen. "Honor Among Lovers" is coming to the Chicago Theater, Friday. Claudette Colbert and Frederic March, who were co-starred in "Manslaughter" are again co-starred in "Honor Among Lovers."

"Honor Among Lovers" is an intensely interesting story which builds dramatic suspense with each succeeding sequence. It tells the story of a young girl, a secretary to a young and wealthy Wall Street financier, who marries another man only to discover that she has all ways really been in love with her employer.

"Honor Among Lovers" is dramatic entertainment of the first rank. The acting in "Honor Among Lovers" is admirable. Claudette Colbert, fast becoming one of the screen's best liked actresses is charming and believable as the girl; Frederic March who recently scored hits in "Laughter" and "Royal Family of Broadway," is straight forward and convincing in a fine role. Charles Ruggles in his best role since "The Lady Lies." Ginger Rogers as his beautiful but dumb girl friend, Monroe Owsley, Grace Kern, and many others having prominent roles.

Will Rogers Stars in "A Connecticut Yankee" At McVickers Theater

America's Ambassador of good humor, Will Rogers, is back again in an uproarious comedy, "A Connecticut Yankee," now playing at the McVickers Theater.

Mark Twain's book and Will Rogers' inimitable humor put together, make one of the funniest pictures ever shown on any screen. Rogers plays the part of a twentieth century Connecticut Yankee who turns King Arthur's ancient Round Table into a modern merry-go-round. Will Rogers as the inventive Yankee, gives the royal and aristocratic Knights of the antique Round Table some modernistic angles, and unflinchingly provides a full quota of good hearty laughs with surprises galore.

In modernizing Mark Twain's classic tale, Rogers has injected much of his own humor into the story, a change for the better, even Mark Twain would applaud. An exceptionally fine cast has been selected to assist Mr. Rogers. They are William Farnum as King Arthur; Maureen O'Sullivan as the King's daughter; Frank Albertson as Clarence, a Page who loves the King's daughter, but cannot marry her because he is not of noble birth; Myrna Loy as the cruel, cold-hearted Queen of a rival Kingdom; Brandon Hurst as Merlin, the crafty magician, and thousands of others.

CHOOSE CAMP FOR SCOUTS THIS YEAR

On Dyer Lake Near Lake Geneva, Wis.; Council Board Meets

An interesting Executive Board meeting of the Northwest Suburban council was last Monday evening at the Methodist church in Arlington Heights. The council, opened by President A. L. Webster at 8:30. Reports of council committees were received. The work and promotion of the coming training course was outlined by the Training committee; the progress in Court of Honor work and the advancement of Scouts was pointed out by the Court of Honor committee.

Pick New Camp
The Camping committee reported on the selection of Camp Oh-De-Ko-Ta, the Kenosha council's $65,000 camp on Dyer Lake near Lake Geneva as the camp for Northwest Suburban scouts the coming summer.

The outstanding work of Troop 10 of Barrington Chamber of Commerce in operating bird feeding stations throughout the winter at the Bird sanctuary was reported on by the Civic Service committee; the development of a consistent program of educational publicity was reported on by the publicity committee, and the number of new troops and increase in Scout membership was reported upon by the Troop Organization committee.

District Reports
Following Committee reports, the reports of Districts were received; W. H. Boireau reporting for Arlington Heights; J. L. Bell for Barrington; B. L. Franzen, Jr., Des Plaines; J. P. Stafford, Palatine, and Jay R. Page, Park Ridge.

After discussion concerning the financial situation, motion was passed that a financial committee make a thorough study of the financial background of the Council in view of re-portioning the quotas of the various districts in relation to changes in population and other features which should govern. This study will be made in the near future in view of reaching an arrangement that will be satisfactory to all concerned for carrying on the work, so that a continuous program of development and growth might not be interrupted by lack of financial support.

Plan for Council Rally
In reporting for the Commissioner's staff, F. O. Proctor of Arlington Heights recommended that the president appoint a committee to arrange for a Council-wide rally to be held Saturday afternoon, May 16. The committee appointed by Mr. Webster were: O. I. Baird, chairman (Barrington); Paul Stoller of Niles Center; A. W. Cates, Park Ridge; J. K. White and F. B. Hanor of Des Plaines, and Earle Cooke of Niles Center.

Other recommendations by the Commissioner and his group were that a first aid trophy be established, to be awarded each year to the troop in the N. W. Sub. council winning the Council contest and the right to represent the council in the Chicago Area First Aid contest held in Chicago. In accepting this recommendation Mr. Webster offered to give this trophy a first contest for troops about the middle of May.

Show Camp Pictures
Business taken care of, membership certificates were awarded to some of the men; and a reel of movies of the proposed summer camp site were shown by the scout executive. The pictures illustrate the development of this site during the past few years and show how it has become one of the best equipped camps in this section of the country. Local officials feel very fortunate in being able to make available to N. W. Sub. Scouts a camp of this caliber.

The next meeting of the Executive board will be held in Palatine, Monday evening, April 27, upon invitation of Palatine district committee.

Members of the Executive board that attended the last meeting included A. L. Webster, B. L. Franzen, Jr., of Des Plaines; J. R. Page of Park Ridge; W. H. Boireau, V. I. Brown, F. O. Proctor, of Arlington Heights; S. R. Paddock and J. P. Stafford of Palatine; J. L. Bell and Hugh Calkins of Barrington and the Scout Executive Nintz. Other members of the Palatine, Barrington and Des Plaines district committees also attended.

Leaders' Training Course is Popular

Leaders' Training Course Popular
The Training Course for Boy leaders opened Wednesday evening by the N. W. Suburban Boy Scout council. A large number attended, listened to Myron C. Rybolt of North Shore Area council, who pointed out principles and objectives; and then took part in the instructional features being provided each Wednesday evening at the Des Plaines Congregational church.

All three sections of the course were well patronized as practically all troops and districts in the council were represented by one or more. The three sections include training for men that have attended no previous courses, training for men that have completed the minimum or first course, and training for Cub leadership for men and older boys contemplating becoming leaders in the new Cub program for boys nine to twelve years old.

Cub Training Popular
Widespread interest in this new program for younger boys is evidenced by the number of men who turned out to familiarize themselves with this program. This work is being conducted under the supervision of Herbert Walker of the Training committee. Mr. Walker has been studying Cub work in Chicago and has enlisted the services of Chicago Cub leaders.

Council officials anticipate that a number of Cub Packs will be organized at the completion of this course as only trained leaders will be accepted. Institutions interested in operating the new program are urged to have their men and older boys take this training.

Men Become Scouts
These standard courses are being operated as troops, the men taking the course becoming "scouts" and by so doing are able to not only receive instruction in the technique of Scouting but to observe the conduct and management of a regular scout troop.

Attractive Program for Next Meeting
Committee promises another attractive meeting next Wednesday, April 1. The group will hear Harry K. Eby, assistant executive of the Chicago council, in charge of organization work, on "Why Boys Drop Out." He has made some very interesting studies along this line and will undoubtedly produce some unusual facts and statistics relating to the turnover of Scouting.

Meetings open promptly at 7:45 and close promptly at 10:00; they are open to any man interested in boys or boy work and are conducted at no cost to the individual. In addition to the Scout leaders, fathers of boys, school teachers and Sunday school teachers, are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to become more familiar with boy work.

Effingham County Man Returns Home

Mr. D. O. Mitchell, who has been visiting his three daughters, Mrs. J. R. Calhoun, Mrs. P. L. Neville, Mrs. Winnie Smith and his brother, Calvin, of Arlington Heights, since Jan. 11, returned to his home in Effingham county, Ill., by auto March 22.

He seemed to have enjoyed very much his visit among his relatives and friends. While here he visited the Crane Farm and was favorably impressed by the benevolent work of this worthy institution in its care of poor widows and their families and thought that the promoter of this work deserves great credit.

Mr. Mitchell is in his 85th year, but is still active and interested in the events of the times.

S. THOMPSON NEW MEMBER FARM BOARD

Bureau Head Quits for New Post; Would Restore Buying Power

Sam H. Thompson, for five years president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, and for two years president of the Illinois Agricultural association, has been appointed by President Hoover to a place on the Federal Farm board, to succeed Alexander Legge, not as chairman, but as a member. The President signed the commission before he left on his southern vacation trip.

Mr. Edward A. O'Neal of Montgomery, Ala., was chosen by the directors of the federation, at their Spring meeting in Chicago, to succeed Mr. Thompson for the unexpired term.

Mr. Thompson, in accepting the appointment, stated: "I am still carrying out the principle that the agricultural industry is entitled to the rights and privileges which other groups in our nation's industrial life have enjoyed for years through governmental aid and protection.

"It is as a representative of organized agriculture that I have agreed to serve on the farm board."

Can Boost Business
"If the buying power of agriculture can be restored, business in general will soon be back on a sound basis."

Mr. O'Neal has been for seven years, vice president of the American Farm Bureau federation. Mr. Charles E. Hearst, Des Moines, was elected vice president; and Earl C. Smith, president of the Illinois Agricultural association, a relatively young man and acknowledged to be one of the most able and sincere leaders of organized agriculture today, — was elected member of the board of directors.

Biggers and Better Prisons Require State's Millions

Springfield—Of all the money spent by Illinois for public buildings in the past 18 months, about three dollars out of every four went to house the rapidly increasing prison population. This is apparent in a report of the architect's office, which itemizes $8,191,513 worth of construction. Of that amount, $6,163,210 was spent in erecting, reconstructing and improving institution buildings.
